JOB OPPORTUNITY

ABORIGINAL COURTWORKER TRAINEE

ABORIGINAL LEGAL SERVICES, a non-profit organization providing a range of services to Toronto's Aboriginal Community, requires an ABORIGINAL COURTWORKER TRAINEE for a contract position of 52 WEEKS.

The role of the Aboriginal Courtworker Trainee is to assist individuals in navigating the justice system by providing information to Aboriginal accused about the judicial processes. They will provide referrals to appropriate legal resources, create release plans and follow up with clients. The Aboriginal Courtworker Trainee should have basic knowledge of Aboriginal Justice approaches. The suitable candidate will have excellent written and verbal skills.

An understanding of Aboriginal culture, history, traditions and aspirations is essential. Ability to speak an Aboriginal language, prior involvement with other Aboriginal organizations, and/or previous experience in a legal setting are desirable.

This is a contract position and funding for the position has been provided by Miziwe Biik Aboriginal Employment and Training Services. Under the provisions of the funding agreement, candidates must be Aboriginal and registered with Miziwe Biik Aboriginal Employment and Training Services.

Please forward letter of interest and resume no later than Friday April 26th, 2019 at 5PM to the attention of Edith Moore, Manager of Human Resources at:
