JOB OPPORTUNITY

TRADITIONAL TEACHER HELPER

ABORIGINAL LEGAL SERVICES, a non-profit organization providing a range of services to Toronto's Aboriginal Community, requires a TRADITIONAL TEACHER HELPER for a contact position of 52 WEEKS.

The role of the Traditional Teacher Helper is to assist individuals in the reconnection with community and tradition through ceremony, circles, counselling, education and referrals. The Traditional Teacher Helper should have basic knowledge of Aboriginal Justice and traditional healing approaches. The suitable candidate will have excellent written and verbal skills and will ideally have some experience facilitating circles, as well as providing counselling and assessment.

An understanding of Aboriginal culture, history, traditions and aspirations is essential. Ability to speak an Aboriginal language, prior involvement with other Aboriginal organizations, and previous experience in a legal setting are desirable.

This is a contract position and funding for the position has been provided by Miziwe Biik Aboriginal Employment and Training Services. Under the provisions of the funding agreement, candidates must be Aboriginal and registered with Miziwe Biik Aboriginal Employment and Training Services.

Please forward letter of interest and resume no later than Tuesday April 16th, 2019 at noon to the attention of Edith Moore, Manager of Human Resources at:
