

Mukwa Babaamose Trainee (Facility Peacekeeper) (2 FTEs)

CONTRACT POSITION (until March 31, 2020 with possibility of permanent hire)

The Toronto Birth Centre (TBC) provides a unique, culturally safe and comfortable birth space for parents expecting a normal birth in the care of midwives; a place which is also welcoming to their extended family members and support system.

The TBC is searching for individuals to fill two (2) Mukwa Babaamose Trainee Positions or “Bear that walks about/takes a stroll”. Reporting directly to the Executive Director, Mukwa Babaamose are responsible for the safety and security of the Toronto Birth Centre and all people within the facility. The Mukwa Babaamose work to ensure the facility/staff/visitors are secure, can respond to and assist with different kinds of emergencies and act as a safety liaison between TBC and the wider community.

Interested applicants are encouraged to apply to the position if they want to work in an Indigenous governed health care facility that cares about creating a culturally safer space for everyone. This small and growing organization provides a highly desirable working environment and opportunities for you to grow in the field, receive training and learn more about Indigenous peacekeeping and Bear Clan roles/responsibilities. TBC is a competitive employer that offers great entry level compensation and a benefits package.

QUALIFICATIONS:

- Valid Ontario Security Guard License is preferred but not necessary, training and support to obtain license will be provided
- Ontario Secondary School Diploma or equivalent with 2 years of work/volunteer experience
- Previous Peacekeeping/ Security Experience is preferred
- Excellent customer service and communication skills is a requirement

As the Birth Centre is a 24 hour/7days per week/365 days a year facility, candidates must be willing to work flexible hours-scheduled on days, afternoon and weekend shifts 40 hours per week.

If you are Aboriginal, and think this position may be a great job for you, please apply by email with your cover letter and resume to: ed@torontobirthcentre.ca . A copy of the job description is available for all interested applicants. This posting will remain open until filled.

The Toronto Birth Centre encourages applications from all genders and values a diverse workforce that reflects the communities it serves. Aboriginal candidates must be able to register with Miziwe Biik Aboriginal Employment and Training. We thank all interested applicants; however, only those selected for an interview will be contacted.